STAR OF THE WEEK

Class	Achievement reason
Whirlow	Pippa – for her care and empathy when supporting other children. Marianna – for her confidence and aspiration in her independent writing.
Heeley	Isla – for her resilience in overcoming difficulties with a smile. Bentley-Jay – for his endeavour in following class routines.
Sheaf	Kyla – for aspiring to do her best in handwriting lessons and transferring these skills into other areas of her learning. Milana – for showing hard work and perseverance when writing her story of “Bedtime for monsters” great work Milana.
Endcliffe	Annabelle – for showing aspiration in her handwriting lessons. Trying her best to get ready to join her letters. Trisha – for showing resilience when completing maths activities. She is learning how to use a number line to add and subtract
Norfolk	Macey – for great creativity in her story writing about the monster. James – for showing great endeavour in solving adding 2 digit numbers.
Crucible	Caitlin – for showing behaviours that are helping you learn. You have been much more independent and willing to have a go! Kenley – for showing determination in writing. Using all the resources available to make his own sentences.
Lyceum	Jacob – for showing determination and endeavour with some tricky maths. You are always showing super learning behaviours and trying your very best. Taylor – for showing endeavour and creativity in both Art and English lessons this week. Your printing looks amazing and your story is getting very exciting.
Kelham	Yousuf – for fantastic endeavour across all curriculum areas, a real thirst for learning and fantastic general knowledge. Dianne – for wonderful resilience and aspiration in all her learning, superb presentation and mature attitude at all times.
Weston	Ollie – for showing aspiration through learning and reading at home. Grace – for always having a positive attitude towards her learning and keeps trying when faced with a challenge.
Graves	Abbey – for showing endeavour in her Maths and challenging herself to achieve her full potential. Well done Abbey! John-Henry – for aspiring to do his very best in all lessons, especially in writing his newspaper! WOW.
Millennium	Darcie-Rose – for her endeavour and teamwork in all lessons, but more so maths. She always supports her peers and is a fantastic role model. Lexi – for her teamwork and engagement in all lessons. If someone on her table needs help, Lexi will always support them.
Bolsover	All of Bolsover class – for having a positive attitude and for showing resilience during mock SATs! Well done everyone.
Peveril	All of Peveril class – for having a positive attitude and for showing resilience during mock SATs! Well done everyone.
Shirebrook	Logan – for demonstrating creativity by showing good listening behaviours in his learning.
